College of Engineering

Assistant, Associate or Full Professor in Industrial and Manufacturing Systems Engineering

The Department of Industrial and Manufacturing Systems Engineering (IMSE) at Iowa State University invites applications for a faculty position in the area of manufacturing at the rank of assistant, associate, or full professor to begin in August 2017. An earned Ph.D. in Industrial Engineering or a closely related field by the employment start date is required. Candidates will be expected to develop and teach undergraduate and graduate courses, establish and sustain strong research programs in their area of expertise, act as adviser to graduate students and undergraduate student research, and provide service to the department, college, and university.

The IMSE department has invested over $1.5M in manufacturing labs in the last 7 years and will invest another $1M this year. Manufacturing researchers in IMSE are actively participating in three institutes established by National Network for Manufacturing Innovation. Iowa State University is a comprehensive, land grant, Carnegie Doctoral/Research Extensive University with an enrollment of over 36,000 students. The College of Engineering comprises 8 departments, with 250+ faculty members and annual research expenditures exceeding $88 million. Iowa State's nearly 2000 acre, park-like campus is located in Ames, Iowa, consistently ranks within the top ten livable small cities in the nation.

For full consideration, applications should be submitted prior to October 15, 2016.
